

"Every home
has both body and spirit.
You may have a beautiful house
With all the decorations that modern art can give or wealth bestow.
You may have all the outward forms that will please the eye and yet not have a home.
It is not home without love.
It may be a hovel, a log hut,
a tent, a wickiup,
if you have the right spirit within,
the true love of Christ,
and love for one another . . .
you have the true life of the home that [we] build and
are trying to establish"

David O. McKay (General Conference Report, 1907, page 63)
