

“God offers us counsel not just for our own safety, but for the safety of His other children,
whom we should love.
There are few comforts
so sweet
as to know that we have been an instrument in the hands of God in leading someone else to safety.”

Elder Henry B. Eyring, Gen. Conf., April 1997, “Finding Safety in Counsel”
