

"In quiet moments
when you think about it,
you recognize what is critically important in life and what isn't.
Be wise and don't let
good things Crowd out those that are essential."

Elder Richard G. Scott
General Conference, April 1997