

“Moroni declared the need for us to deny ourselves ‘all ungodliness’ (Moro. 10:32), thus including
both large and small sins.

While boulders surely
block our way,
loose gravel slows discipleship, too.

Even a small stone
can become a stumbling block.”

Neal A. Maxwell, CR, April 1995