

"Those who do
too much for their children will soon find
they can do nothing with their children.
So many children
have been so much done for they are almost done in."

Neal A. Maxwell (General Conference Report, April 1975, page 150)