

"We need to purge out of our lives the desire to come to meetings late and leave early....

I don't see any of the men that I prize most, leaving any meetings early except in an emergency.

I believe they have the dignity to not offend God. I believe it is an offense to God when we leave meetings early, and when we come late to meetings."

Vaughn J. Featherstone
"A Self-Inflicted Purging"
General Conference, April 1975