

"If you are faced with temptation
and choose the temptation, your desire and willingness to do evil will increase.
We have to start by doing something good
when we don't want to do it.
Then our desire and ability to do good will increase.
Obedience breeds desire."

Harold C. Brown, while President of Cottonwood Stake