

"The life
of self-control
is not grievous
but joyous
when we become
accustomed to it.
It clears the mind;
it strengthens
the judgement;
it elevates the character.
It is the true freedom."

-Benjamin Jowett-