

"Each of us has the same general calling.

The Lord will not hold us blameless

if we allow organizational responsibility---or lack of it--- to interfere with the duty to care for those around us."

--S. Dilworth Young--