

"If we are willing to put our trust in the Lord and keep his commandments, we have been promised that we will be blessed.
The blessing might not come in the form of straight A's, having a date every Friday night, or inheriting a lot of money.
But we will grow in capacity, experiencing joy along the way as we keep more and more of the commandments and eventually become prepared for a celestial existence."

--Janet Lee, "Crossing the Street of Life" - BYU Speeches Sept. 15, 1992--