

"If we truly desire to please God and serve him, continual self-examination of our reasons for actions cannot fail to expose our selfish and sordid motives and challenge us to reform them.

We can work to reform our motives if we are continually asking ourselves "Why am I taking this action?"

--Dallin H. Oaks--