

"Our attitudes determine how we evaluate our life's experiences. They determine how we evaluate ourselves.

They also govern how we look at other people. Are we inclined to judge an eternal soul by the appearance of an earthly body?

Do we see the beautiful soul of a brother or sister, or do we only see that person's earthly tabernacle?

Bodies can be distorted by handicap, twisted by injury, or worn by age.

But if we can learn to see the inner man and woman, we will be seeing as God sees, and loving as He loves."
