

“I think
if we were to take one single measure
of how spiritually well
a person is,
it would be
how much gratitude
he or she feels for life,
for what it has to offer.”

--Church News--