

“Some people are only interested in themselves.

“What is in it for me?” is an expression we hear much too often.

Someone has said, “The smallest package in all the world is someone who is all wrapped up in himself.”

--George I. Cannon--